

English Language Arts
Curriculum
2007

B. WRITING: Students write to express their ideas and emotions, to describe their experiences, to communicate information, and to present or analyze an argument.

Content	Grade K	Grade 1	Grade 2
B1 Interconnected Elements	Students use a writing process to communicate their ideas. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Select a focus for writing and develop an idea, including a beginning, middle and end. b. Respond to clarifying questions and suggested revisions. c. Edit, with assistance, for correct grammar, usage, and mechanics d. Create legible final drafts. 	Students use a writing process to communicate their ideas. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Select a focus for writing and develop an idea, including a beginning, middle and end. b. Respond to clarifying questions and suggested revisions. c. Edit, with assistance, for correct grammar, usage, and mechanics d. Create legible final drafts. 	Students use a writing process to communicate their ideas. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Select a focus for writing and develop an idea, including a beginning, middle and end. b. Respond to clarifying questions and suggested revisions. c. Edit, with assistance, for correct grammar, usage, and mechanics d. Create legible final drafts.

