

English Language Arts
Curriculum
2007

B. WRITING: Students write to express their ideas and emotions, to describe their experiences, to communicate information, and to present or analyze an argument.

Content	Grade 6	Grade 7	Grade 8
B2 Narrative	Students write narratives that convey complex ideas, observations, events, or reflections. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Establish a plot (or other narrative structure), point of view, setting, and conflict. b. Develop characters. c. Use a range of narrative strategies for effect. d. Use stylistic devices to clarify, enhance and develop ideas. 	Students write narratives that convey complex ideas, observations, events, or reflections. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Establish a plot (or other narrative structure), point of view, setting, and conflict. b. Develop characters. c. Use a range of narrative strategies for effect. d. Use stylistic devices to clarify, enhance and develop ideas. 	Students write narratives that convey complex ideas, observations, events, or reflections. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Establish a plot (or other narrative structure), point of view, setting, and conflict. b. Develop characters. c. Use a range of narrative strategies for effect. d. Use stylistic devices to clarify, enhance and develop ideas.