

English Language Arts
Curriculum
2007

B. WRITING: Students write to express their ideas and emotions, to describe their experiences, to communicate information, and to present or analyze an argument.

Content	Grade 9	Grade 10	Grade 11	Grade 12
B2 Narrative	Students embed narrative writing in a written text when appropriate to the audience and purpose. a. Use diction, syntax, imagery, and tone to create a distinctive voice. b. Organize ideas in a logical sequence, with effective transitions.	Students embed narrative writing in a written text when appropriate to the audience and purpose. a. Use diction, syntax, imagery, and tone to create a distinctive voice. b. Organize ideas in a logical sequence, with effective transitions.	Students embed narrative writing in a written text when appropriate to the audience and purpose. a. Use diction, syntax, imagery, and tone to create a distinctive voice. b. Organize ideas in a logical sequence, with effective transitions.	Students embed narrative writing in a written text when appropriate to the audience and purpose. a. Use diction, syntax, imagery, and tone to create a distinctive voice. b. Organize ideas in a logical sequence, with effective transitions.