

MSAD 52 Compulsory School Attendance

Under state law, full-time attendance at school is required of all children from their 7th to their 17th birthday except:

- A. A Person who graduates from high school before their 17th birthday;
- B. A person who has:
 - 1. Reached the age of 15 years or completed the 9th grade;
 - 2. Permission to leave school from the person's parent/guardian;
 - 3. Been approved by the principal for a suitable program of work and study or training;
 - 4. Permission to leave school from the Board or its designee; and
 - 5. Agreed in writing with that person's parent/guardian and the Board or its designee to meet annually until that person's 17th birthday to review that person's educational needs. When the request to be excused from school has been denied pursuant to this paragraph, the student's parent/guardian may appeal to the Commissioner; or
- C. A person who has matriculated and is attending an accredited, post-secondary, degree-granting institution as a full-time student. An exception to the attendance in public school under this paragraph must be approved by the Commissioner.

Alternative to Attendance at Public day School

- A. Equivalent instruction alternative are as follows:
 - 1. A person shall be excused from attending a public school if the person obtains equivalent instruction in:
 - a. A private school approved for attendance purposes pursuant to 20-A MRSA § 2901;
 - b. A private school recognized by the Maine State Department of Education as providing equivalent instruction;
 - c. A home instruction program that complies with the requirements of 20-A MRSA § 5001-A(3)(A)(4); or
 - d. Any other manner arranged for by the Board of Directors and approved by the Commissioner.
- B. A person may be excused from attendance at a public day school pursuant to 20-A MRSA § 5104-A (other public or private alternative programs) or § 8605 (student attendance in adult education courses).

Credit for Attendance at a Private School

A person shall be credited with attendance at a private school, only if a certificate showing the name, residence and attendance of the person at the school, signed by the person or persons in charge of the school, has been filed with the school officials of MSAD 52.

Discontinuation of Home Instruction

If the home instruction program is discontinued, students of compulsory school age must be enrolled in a public school or an equivalent instruction alternative as provided for by the law. The receiving school shall determine the placement of the student. At the secondary level, the principal of the receiving school shall determine the value of the prior educational experience toward meeting the standards of Maine's Learning Results.

Excusable Absences

A person's absence is excused when the absence is for one of the following reasons:

- A. Personal illness;
- B. An appointment with a health care provider that must be made during the regular school day;
- C. Observance of a recognized religious holiday when the observance is required during the regular school day;
- D. A family emergency;
- E. A planned absence for a personal or educational purpose which has been approved;
- F. Education disruption resulting from homelessness, unplanned psychiatric hospitalization, unplanned hospitalization for a medical emergency, foster care placement, youth development placement or some other out-of-district placement that is not otherwise authorized by either any individual education plan or a superintendents' student transfer agreement. "Education disruption" does not apply to a student who is out of school for 10 or more consecutive school days as a result of a planned absence for a reason, such as a family event or a medical absence for a planned hospitalization or recovery.

Parents/guardians are responsible for the school attendance of students who are under 17 years of age. The Board shall work with families in an effort to ensure compliance.

Secondary school students 20 years of age or more will only be admitted to the school unit with prior Board approval.
